INSIDE INFORMATION
ON THE WAY TO WILSON

Wm. Bayard Hale Hurrying to Washington With Detailed Report—Important Developments Expected.

HALE GOES TO WILSON
WITH DETAILED REPORT
West, Fla., September 2.—William Bayard Hale, special investigator for President Wilson of political affairs in Mexico, arrived here by boat last evening. He immediately boarded a train for Washington. He refused to discuss the situation in Mexico beyond expressing an opinion that President Wilson's proposals to General Huerta, made through John Lind, would not be accepted. Mr. Hale said he would file a detailed report before President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

Washington, September 2.—President Wilson, who returns to Washington tomorrow morning from Cornwall, N. H., is expected to meet William Bayard Hale, now en route here from a special mission to Mexico for the administration. Mr. Hale's report on conditions in Mexico since the arrival of John Lind with the peace proposals of the American government will be made direct to the president.

Confidential reports reached Washington today that Mr. Lind, who has been at Vera Cruz since the rejection by the Huerta government of the American proposals, would return to the United States within a few days. No confirmation of the report has been received from the state department.

Secretary of State Bryan said just before leaving for a lecture engagement tonight at York, Pa., that he knew nothing of such an intention by Mr. Lind.

"I had a message from Mr. Lind today," said the secretary, "but it did not concern his movements. As to the Mexican situation, it can be said that matters look encouraging."

Possible Developments.
Since the departure of the president from Washington the daily character of the situation of the Mexican situation at the state department "has been unchanged."

The renewal of the word "encouraging" just in the case of returning to the capital was regarded in official circles as significant of possible developments. Mr. Bryan, however, had no explanation for his statement, except a smile, the first he has been in discussing the tense diplomatic affair with Mexico for many days.

One source of encouragement to Mr. Bryan today was the action of the house appropriating committee in recommending the deficiency bill to the $100,000 asked by the secretary to meet the expense of bringing American citizens from Mexico.

Mr. Bryan today discussed protection of American property in Mexico with Senator Swanson, of Virginia, who called to submit a bill to the sugar company near Vera Cruz which did not wish to let property be guarded by Americans.

Several requests for further information as to the purpose of the American mission regard to protection of American property in Mexico have been received here and it is probable that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan will confer on the matter tomorrow.

To Probe Execution Report.
Council Hans at Monterey was ordered today to ascertain the cause of the reported execution of an American at Turin, on order of Federal General Bravo. The state department is without official knowledge of the Americans, who were said to be serving in the constitutionalist ranks.

The death of John Shedd at Vera Cruz, a British subject, reported to have had no connection with political disturbances.

Council Agor reports from Tepic, Mexico that Americans do not consider their lives in danger under the present conditions and are not desirous of leaving. The two Americans on the Hearst steamer were not injured in the recent attack and the fourteen Americans and other foreigners on the La-

Woman Wins Fight
To Prevent Change
In Name of Street

McDaniel Street Is Good Enough for Her, Says Miss Wells, and She Convinces Members of Council.

Point, at least, a woman who does not change her mind or words. She is Miss Sue Wells, and she lives right here in Atlanta.

Miss Wells made up her mind that the name of McDaniel street should not be changed, and her mind is still made up. She has won her fight, and led it, he said right here that it was a good fight, the last round of it being before Atlanta's city council, yesterday afternoon.

It was such a good fight, and Miss Wells showed herself to be such a good fighter, the council voted almost unanimously with her even though she was beaten before the street committee.

Name Good Enough for Her.
Miss Wells is one of the largest property owners on McDaniel street, and even though it has no fancy sound, she decided that it was good enough for her.

So, alone with a pitiful knowledge of politics, she charged the enemy. Arguing against her were more than fifty of the most influential ladies who live in the most prominent section of the city. The ladies of the association were none other than the "village" of the "Blackburn" member of Georgia's house of representatives, and a daughter of the highest order.

The enemy had a good start on Miss Wells. A petition was signed in council, and before the street committee before she had time to make her case.

Two weeks Miss Wells had a petition of her own. She secured signatures of 1,000 from McDaniel street owners protesting the change. Then she came to the council.

She was met by a hostile crowd. The council was divided. The members of the council were divided. The members of the council were divided.

AMERICANS IN MEXICO FLOCK TO VERA CRUZ FOR SAFETY

BATTLESHIP LOUISIANA

Many Americans in Mexico dropped their business, closed their homes and hurried to Vera Cruz after President Wilson had announced his policy of non-interference in Mexican affairs and had urged Americans there to leave the country. Every train entering Vera Cruz brought refugees, some of them indignant at the president's order, but others satisfied to leave the land of revolution. The sight of the United States battleships was good to the eyes of all.

Criminals—Forty Women
Slain in Two Years.

Police court experienced another strenuous day Tuesday, when Recorder Pro Tem Preston tried approximately 125 cases from 8:00 a. m. until 8:20 o'clock at night.

This record, coming on the heels of Monday's court, which Judge Preston declared was the biggest since prohibition, establishes another mark in police justice. The crime wave, and especially the many murders of negro women, is alarming the negroes of Atlanta.

This was made evident in a strong sermon on the present wave delivered by Rev. H. J. Bridges, colored, president of the Georgia Colored Industrial school at Macon, Sunday night at the Butler Street Methodist church.

He cited that there had been more than 40 negro women slain in Atlanta within less than two years and that more than twice that number of men had been killed. He urged negroes to aid the police in their traditional impulse to shield the slayer in such cases, and to rid the community of such widespread crime, to co-operate with the police in running down criminals.

"The perpetrators of most of these crimes," he said, "have gone unpunished, which fact is due to the feeling of most of our race who would shield and hide, not only the slayer but the criminal."

"As long as this condition exists, the negro race is in danger of destruction. The only thing which will reduce crime among us is to afford no place of exclusion for the wrongdoer, but to assist the authorities in meeting up to him the justice he deserves."

"This wave of crime, as well as all others, will never be checked unless this course is pursued by the negro. The police, in striving to ferret the murder of a black, strike a wall of adamant in the silence of negroes who try to thwart the efforts of authorities."

Mrs. Pankhurst Insane Woman Believes Dr. Len G. Broughton

DR. LEN G. BROUGHTON,
Pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle.

"The militant suffragettes of England are anarchists, and should be treated as such. They should suffer the same penalties for like crimes that anarchists do—except that I am not in favor of capital punishment. Mrs. Pankhurst I regard as insane. She is extremely erratic, and has done great harm to the cause of equal suffrage."

This was said by Dr. Len G. Broughton, former pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, now of London, who slipped into Atlanta unheralded Tuesday morning.

Lying in an easy chair at the home of his brother, Dr. Joseph Broughton, 102 West Twelfth street, last night he said, "But I see I have been found out. I am very happy to be back here especially just at the time when Dr. McConnel is to be installed at the Tabernacle."

"I tried to slip in here unobserved on my way to Macon and other points," he said. "But I see I have been found out. I am very happy to be back here especially just at the time when Dr. McConnel is to be installed at the Tabernacle."

JUDGE CONDEMNS PISTOL CARRYING

Gambling Termed a "Senseless Evil" and Grand Jury Is Urged to See That Law Is Strictly Enforced.

When Judge John T. Pendleton, of the superior court, swore in the new grand jury Tuesday he made mention of the crime wave that has struck Atlanta, and told the members of the grand jury to see to it that every man charged with breaking the law, be indicted if the evidence indicated a possibility of his guilt.

"Atlanta, while I have observed the wave of lawlessness here, is no worse than many other cities of its size," the judge remarked and added: "I do not think Fulton county is worse in this respect than are many other counties."

Attacks Gamblers. Judge Pendleton made an especially strong attack upon gamblers and pistol-toters, and urged that the offenders go after these law-breakers at once. He declared that the man who carries a pistol in a civilized community is a coward and deserves only contempt.

Gambling, called by the judge a "senseless evil," was also made the subject of part of his address to the grand jury, and he told them that it was the duty of grand jurors and of petit jurors to see that gamblers received a just punishment.

The grand jury, after being sworn in, met and chose H. Y. McCord as foreman. Immediately thereafter a number of cases were taken up, and nineteen true bills, ranging from murder to robbery were returned.

B. C. Smith, a negro, was indicted for the murder of John Henry Wilkerson, another negro, whom he is said to have stabbed to death. Most of the indictments were against negroes, and were for burglary and robbery. Several indictments were returned for carrying concealed weapons.

Other Indictments. There were other cases on the list. Three of the indictments found, charged perjury, and two were for assault with intent to rape.

During its session Tuesday morning the grand jury found no "no bills" out of the many cases considered. Several of these cases will be given further consideration at the next meeting on Friday, at which time the name of James Conley, the negro sweeper of the National Pencil factory, will be put on for indictment as an accessory to the murder of little Mary Phagan.

Coming with the large number of cases before the grand jury and the numbers of law violations reported by the police dockets, was the condition when Judge Andrew Calhoun opened the criminal division of the city court at Atlanta Tuesday morning with nearly 400 cases on the calendar.

TWO TRAINMEN HURT MAKING A TEST RUN

Members of Crew on Georgia Train Have Narrow Escape From Death.

A miraculous escape from serious injury and possible death was experienced by Georgia railroad trainmen when fast freight train No. 210, on a test run, collided head-on with switch engine No. 814 at the Georgia railroad crossing at Hurt street, Tuesday night at 7:50 o'clock. All of the crew escaped without injury with the exception of R. A. Perrot, switching conductor, who had his back badly wrecked, and Emmet Smith, a negro brakeman, whose back and head were deeply cut.

Perrot was taken to the Tabernacle infirmary, where it was found that his wounds would not prove serious and Smith was taken to Grady hospital, where it was stated that if no internal complications set in he will recover.

The test run was to be made in an effort to show that the engineer of a swiftly moving train running south into Decatur could see a train if it were standing on the track by the Decatur depot, as the Georgia Railroad is now being used by Engineer Gilliam, who had his back and head cut by the train which was standing on the track.

The switching crew all stoutly maintain that they were under the impression that train No. 210 would not be along for about ten minutes, and therefore did not clear the track. The officials of the railroad have started a rigid investigation of the accident.

OVER 1,000 GAIN IN CITY SCHOOLS

Superintendent Slaton Again
Urges Parents of Children to Secure Entrance Tickets at Once.

Stating that an increase of from 1,000 to 1,500 in public school attendance was looked for this year, Superintendent William M. Slaton yesterday again earnestly requested that the parents of the children desiring to go to school this term, secure their entrance tickets at once, in order to avoid the congested condition of last year, when, for the last two or three days before the opening of the schools, hundreds of people stood in long lines waiting for a chance to get to the window and procure the necessary blanks.

The total attendance in the public schools of Atlanta last year was close to 26,000," said Superintendent Slaton, "and with the expected increase this year nearly every one of our school buildings will be taxed to its utmost capacity to accommodate the children.

Run on at High School.
The office at the High School is besieged by parents, teachers and prospective pupils and the force in the superintendent's office is having the busiest time of its career preparing for the opening of school Monday, September 8.

The regular teachers' normal school opened in the High School building Tuesday morning, and other sessions will be held today and Thursday. Superintendent Slaton addressed the teachers Tuesday morning on general school work, pointing out the advantages to be gained by the meeting and the special instructions extended for the year to take charge of the training, physical exercise and music classes already delivered.

The sessions of today and Thursday will be given over to an open meeting at which some of the most experienced teachers will make short talks outlining the best policy to be pursued in all the grade school branches of study.

All of the public school teachers, including supernumeraries, are taking part in these meetings, with the exception of the state high school teachers, who are meeting in the district.

High school building as a separate body, and the Boys' High school teachers who are holding a separate session in the Boys' High school building.

Will Betterment Commission.

It was announced Tuesday that the old Neal Academy on Moreland avenue had been formally leased, and will be opened as a graded school within the next 10 days.

The securing of this building for school purposes will greatly relieve the congested condition of the schools in the Inman Park, Highland and Edgewood grammar schools, which were so crowded last year that it was all but impossible to accommodate the children applying for admission.

It is requested that all children who failed to pass their grades last year or who have never before attended any public school in Atlanta, appear at their respective school buildings Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock, at which time entrance examinations will be held.

CIRCUSES ARE BARRED FROM ATLANTA PARKS

The application for a permit for the circus to be held in the park at Piedmont park, on October 10, was not taken up at the meeting of the park board yesterday afternoon.

At a meeting of the board of trustees, representing the city, the board, realizing that the sentiment of the people of Atlanta was against allowing the use of park property, withdrew its application, and announced that it had secured a lot on Boulevard.

However, on motion of Commissioner Frank Reynolds, the board went on record as being positively opposed to allowing the use of park grounds for any other purpose than provided for in the creation of the park department. Commissioner Reynolds, to make certain that the board at no time hereafter will entertain a similar project, offered a resolution which forever puts the parks out of the reach of the circus or a like enterprise.

ALDERMAN C. H. KELLY TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

Alderman C. H. Kelly, elected by council to fill the vacancy in the aldermanic board, caused by the resignation of Alderman John E. McClelland of the second ward, took the oath of office yesterday afternoon and participated for the first time in the deliberations of council. Alderman Kelly, who took the oath, was sworn in by Mayor Wood.

The second ward delegation put in nomination F. M. Florence to succeed Alderman Kelly as a member of the water board. The election was announced by the mayor.

Councilman J. J. Greer called attention to the vacancy on the school board in the fifth ward caused by the death of Dr. G. V. Pearce, and asked council to take action to fill the vacancy. The vacancy will be filled at the next meeting.

NO QUARANTINE FOR PRESENT IN GEORGIA

Boll Weevil Not Yet Here, but Cotton Seed From Alabama
Infected District Barred.

At a meeting of the state board of entomology held in the office of State Entomologist Lee Worsham yesterday afternoon it was decided not to draw any quarantine line in Georgia in regard to the boll weevil, in view of the fact that the weevil has not yet reached the state and will probably not get to it before next year.

A strict quarantine will be maintained against the infected portions of Alabama, however, and no cotton seed from that state will be allowed to be shipped into Georgia without the certificate of the entomologist of Alabama that it is free from the pest.

The next meeting of the board will be held in October. It is composed of the following ex-officio members: Commissioner of Agriculture, President, Williams, of the Georgia Agricultural society, and President Blackman, of the Georgia Horticultural society.

Athens Police Put End to Depredations of Alleged Gang of Youthful Robbers

Athens, Ga., September 2.—(Special.)—Charged with committing depredations on the university campus, in fraternal houses and in homes and public buildings in Athens, four members of a gang of young boys with whom social welfare workers have recently been busy, are in jail here, and the police are seeking two others.

The boys are said to have recently in the office of Sanford Athletic field and to have robbed the Young Men Christian association building, the campus house and numerous private residences, besides making various depredations on the university campus.

SEARCH RENEWED FOR ALLEGED ASSAULTER

Waycross, Ga., September 2.—(Special.)—Headed by the sheriff of Clinch county, a posse of citizens spent today searching the county about Cutting, a small mill and turpentine town, west of Waycross, for a half-witted foreigner, whose name is unknown.

The man is charged with attempting a criminal assault upon a 10-year-old girl, a member of a well-known family. According to the reports received here tonight, he was caught once because of the mental condition, was allowed to leave. Friends of the family of which the girl was a member, resented this and renewed the search.

Crawfordville School.

Crawfordville, Ga., September 2.—(Special.)—Stephens High school began its fall session yesterday morning with an unusually large attendance and prospects are very bright for a successful year. Professor J. O. Gibson is principal and is ably assisted by a competent corps of assistants.

NASHVILLE SATISFIED WITH TEAM'S RECORD

Georgia Boys Did Fine in Preliminaries, but Luck Was Against Them in Finals.

With the exception of four men who were left to participate in the preliminaries, the Georgia team returned to Atlanta from Camp Perry yesterday morning.

Ill luck seems to have dogged the team's footsteps throughout the three weeks of the shoot. While several members of the team made splendid shows in the preliminaries, the winners in the aggregate, $114 in medals and in money, they were not able to win the final.

Georgia Boys Handicapped.
The Georgia boys were greatly handicapped in the crucial tests by what is known among rifle men as a fall wind, that is, a current of air which changes its direction almost momentarily, and which is very difficult to gauge with any accuracy.

This kind of wind is most common in the hill country of Georgia. The boys who were especially distinguished were Captain W. T. Spratt and Sergeant Wilford R. Brown, of Atlanta, and Sergeant W. B. Hale, of Winder. Captain Spratt tied with Captain W. Dabney, United States infantry, in the 400-yard ten-shot match for members of the U. S. A. He also ranked in the match for the long range, 1,000 yards, running full scores and six bulls over.

So good was the showing made by Sergeant Wilford Brown, that he was selected as one of the twenty men to represent the militia team of all states in their competition with the regulars.

Four Left Behind.

The Georgia men who were left at Camp Perry to participate in the international shooting were Wilford R. Brown, first sergeant, Company C, fifth regiment, O. L. Rudolph, captain of Troop B, Second squadron of cavalry, and W. B. Hale, sergeant in the Third battalion of infantry. Dr. J. O. Seaman, major of the Second squadron of cavalry, remained at the team coach.

WITH $1,800 PACKAGE THIEF MAKES ESCAPE

Atlantic City, September 2.—Ticket sellers in the Reading station today were busy handling hundreds of bound crowds that they didn't want a man to see behind the ticket rack and make off with $1,800 piled up ready to be taken to the bank.

The thief had melted into the crowd and the searching of a train that had left Atlantic City a few minutes after the theft occurred was futile.

WHITFIELD'S CLAIMS DISCREDITED AT ROME

Rome, Ga., September 2.—(Special.)—The story in THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION telling of the claims of Walter D. Whitfield, a life-term convict, that he had discovered new evidence that would clear him from the charge of murder, created much interest here. Whitfield, however, is not given much credence, although since his conviction he has stoutly asserted his innocence.

The crime for which Whitfield was convicted of life imprisonment was the killing of Thomas Parker, a guard at the convict camp in April of 1911. At his trial he was not allowed to make a statement, and no evidence was introduced in his behalf.

Whitfield has more than a million and a half in prison.

On the surface all is calm and placid, but it is known that the attorneys are working night and day in Mrs. Godbee's behalf, and expect a victory in the first jury verdict.

From her nearly appointed cell in the Jenkins county jail Mrs. Godbee is directing the work of her lawyers in a quiet deliberate way. A few days ago she sent them to Atlanta to look over the superior court records for an old divorce suit, said to have been filed by her late former husband several years ago, but later withdrawn.

This bit of evidence, if secured, will be used by her lawyers to show that her married life with Judge Godbee was not happy, and that later he annoyed her until driven to desperation, in a moment of emotional insanity or paranoia, she slew him and the new wife, with whom he seemed to be happy.

Atlanta, will in all probability, play a prominent part in the case.

ON HIS 105TH BIRTHDAY HE ATTENDS BARBECUE

Birmingham, Ala., September 2.—More than 2,000 people attended the barbecue yesterday at Sterrett, Shelby county, Alabama, in honor of John Godwin, who is now 105 years old.

Mr. Godwin has 118 direct descendants and counting relatives by marriage more than 400 relatives were present.

Mr. Godwin is hale and hearty, though hands and feet are stiff, and he is a keen and active man. He is a native of Alabama, and has lived in Birmingham since 1880.

X-RAY TO BE EXTENDED TO WOMEN'S FOOTWEAR

London, September 1.—The so-called X-ray feature in women's shoes is to be extended to footwear, according to Irish lace makers, who are conducting a campaign for the use of X-ray shoes for evening wear. The makers are not given much credence, although since his conviction he has stoutly asserted his innocence.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

All the News of Real Estate and Building.

A handsome brick apartment with all modern conveniences is promised for Anley Park by Frank L. Fleming, one of Atlanta's well-known real estate dealers. Mr. Fleming has a local architect working on the plans at the present time.

The building will be erected at the cost of $25,000. Work will start in the fall. It is thought that the building will be completed by the first of the year. The lot, which faces the northeast, is 100x120 feet.

The structure will be located opposite the home of Frank Ellis, on Peachtree Circle. The building will be three stories in height. It is thought and will contain from twelve to fifteen apartments.

Tuesday's Local Auction Sale.
Tuesday's auction at the courthouse was comparatively without interest. Only a few barrels of apples, some rather small. Unlike most of the former sales, there was only a small crowd, and practically no bidding.

Auction Sale Thursday.
Thursday at 3 o'clock on the premises, a seven-room house, known as the "old house," was sold at 20 Delta place, Inman Park. The residence is on a lot 60x120 feet, and contains a number of more or less valuable items in the rear.

Residence Sales Picking Up.
With the past few weeks the sale of residences has been larger than in some time. This is accounted for by the fact that it is the fall marketing season, and many citizens of Atlanta who have been longing for more or less of their own, decided to take advantage of the comparative low prices which some dealers have been quoting on choice properties in various parts of the city.

Atlanta Sales Continuing.
W. H. Cole, manager of the Atlanta subdivision, which is just the other side of Decatur, states that his sales are continuing briskly. Indications point to a bright fall trade, and the erection of a number of new homes in that section.

Factory sites Available.
Since W. H. Leach, of the Industrial and Statistical Bureau, is corresponding with a number of manufacturers, factory officials with a view of bringing their industries to Atlanta, a number of industrial sites are being offered on some of the choice factory sites about the city.

Water is the best.
It is true that Atlanta is not a water city, but the railroad facilities offered are considered among the best. It is not the best, in the south.
